New Kids on the Block:

On behalf of the LTC Committee I would like to welcome two new committee members, Aron Toman and Craigen Whitehead. See it's not just the "oldies" and "stuffed shirts" that go on committees. We need you youngsters to bring new blood, new ideas and different perspectives. It is a commitment but it is also a lot of fun and gives you a great sense of achievement at the end of the day. Anyone is welcome to come along to committee meetings and see what games we play. You are also welcome to contact anyone on the committee if you are interested in any of the subcommittees - By Laws, Sponsorship, Social, Future Shows, Finance, Publicity, GAT, Membership. They will gladly answer any questions.

Aron with the able assistance of Daniel Hansen will be our web master responsible for the enhancement and promotion of our website. We all look forward to viewing the end result.

Craigen has offered to assist me in the challenging role of Social Coordinator. Thanks a million Craigen, you have already come up with some great ideas to make our events a success.

Social Events:

- Looking at holding a Trivia Night in May to have a fun night, stimulate the grey matter and help raise funds towards furnishing our home, the "Wings". When dates and details are finalised we will send out flyers to hand out and place on the fridge as a reminder
- Will organise our annual Show Launch for our 2007 show/s sometime in September. Will send out flyers closer to the time.

Nobody's Perfect

This show is a definite must for great entertainment, a wonderful cast and a good laugh. Something we all need in bucket loads for a healthy life.

The Story:

This is an English comedy that tells the story of Leonard, a statistician working from home, who is suffering jibes from his teenage daughter and his rascally father. He is determined to become a published novelist, and sends book after book to a feminist publisher who is running a competition to find a new romantic fiction.

Rejection after rejection forces Leonard to rethink his options forcing him to write under a female pseudonym. After winning first prize, Leonard must carry on the pretence of his non-existent Aunt Myrtle, and he is a worried man in the guise of a carefree woman.

Cast:

Lawrie Fildes

Directed by Barry Whitehead

Tickets available from Box Office, Traralgon - 51763559. $18 per ticket or $15 for a group.
